

Mason Receives National Designation as one of the Best Workplaces for Commuters in 2018

Mason is honored to have been named one of the Best Workplaces for Commuters in 2018 for its commuter programs that meet the National Standard of Excellence criteria. The University is being recognized for offering a range of commuter programs that help support faculty and staff to get to and from work while also recognizing the positive impact that commuting together or working from home can have on the environment. These programs include:

- Commonwealth Commuter Choice
- Flexible Work Options
- Car Pooling
- Van Pooling
- Zimride (Mason's Rideshare Program)
- Guaranteed Ride Home Program

For information about all of these commuter options, please visit transportation.gmu.edu and flexwork.gmu.edu.
