

Michael E. Doyle – Northern Virginia Families for Safe Streets (NoVA FSS)

Mike is the Founding member of Alexandria Families For Safe Streets (AFSS), a 501.c3 not-for-profit that he, along with four other volunteers, started in August of 2017. AFSS is a grassroots organization dedicated to building an awareness of, and support for, safe streets in Alexandria, where all people can walk, cycle, and drive safely. In 2019 Mike helped to start an Arlington FSS chapter and in late 2020, start a Fairfax FSS chapter. The three chapters are under an umbrella organization call Northern Virginia Families for Safe Streets (NoVA FSS). Today, the collective NoVA FSS chapters have a core membership of about 400 citizens and a mailing list of over 1,000 residents in the Northern Virginia area. All three chapters seek to eliminate traffic-related fatalities and injuries on our streets and will be a voice for and tell the stories of those people whose lives have been harmed and impacted by a traffic crash. With those stories and the data behind them, we will empower our leaders to invest in vulnerable road users' safety on our roads.

Mike is an investment banker by trade. He worked at JP Morgan; Charterhouse, Inc. and BHF Bank in Frankfurt Germany. He started his own firm, Novahill Advisors, in 2002 and provides M&A advisory services to Healthcare IT / Digital Health companies across the U.S. In addition, he is a member of the Housing Affordability Advisory Committee in Alexandria, Virginia. Mike graduated from Villanova University with a B.S. degree and received an MBA from New York University Stern Graduate School of Business.
