

Rachel O’Dwyer Flynn, AIA

Rachel Flynn joined Fairfax County in February 2019 as the Deputy County Executive – overseeing six departments, which include Planning, Building, Transportation, Economic Initiatives, Public Works, and Code Compliance. Prior to moving to Fairfax, Rachel worked for Google as Director of Planning and for Lennar/FivePoint Communities in Northern California.

Previously, Rachel directed planning and development efforts for the cities of Oakland, CA, Abu Dhabi, UAE, Richmond, VA, and Lynchburg, VA. She practiced architecture for over twelve years with Cannon Design in New York, Boston, Toronto, and Washington, D.C.

She has been honored with numerous awards from civic and professional organizations for successful master plans, downtown revitalization, historic preservation, environmental initiatives, and innovative technology programs.

Rachel holds degrees from Harvard University and Catholic University.